1. Gather diverse experiences. You never know when a new door will open.

“...you can't connect the dots looking forward. You can only connect them looking backwards, so you have to trust that the dots will somehow connect in your future.”

Steve Jobs Stanford Commencement Speech, June 2005

2. Go deep, real deep, in at least one area of technical expertise.

Statistics

Design

Etc.

Science

Finance

Coding

Etc.

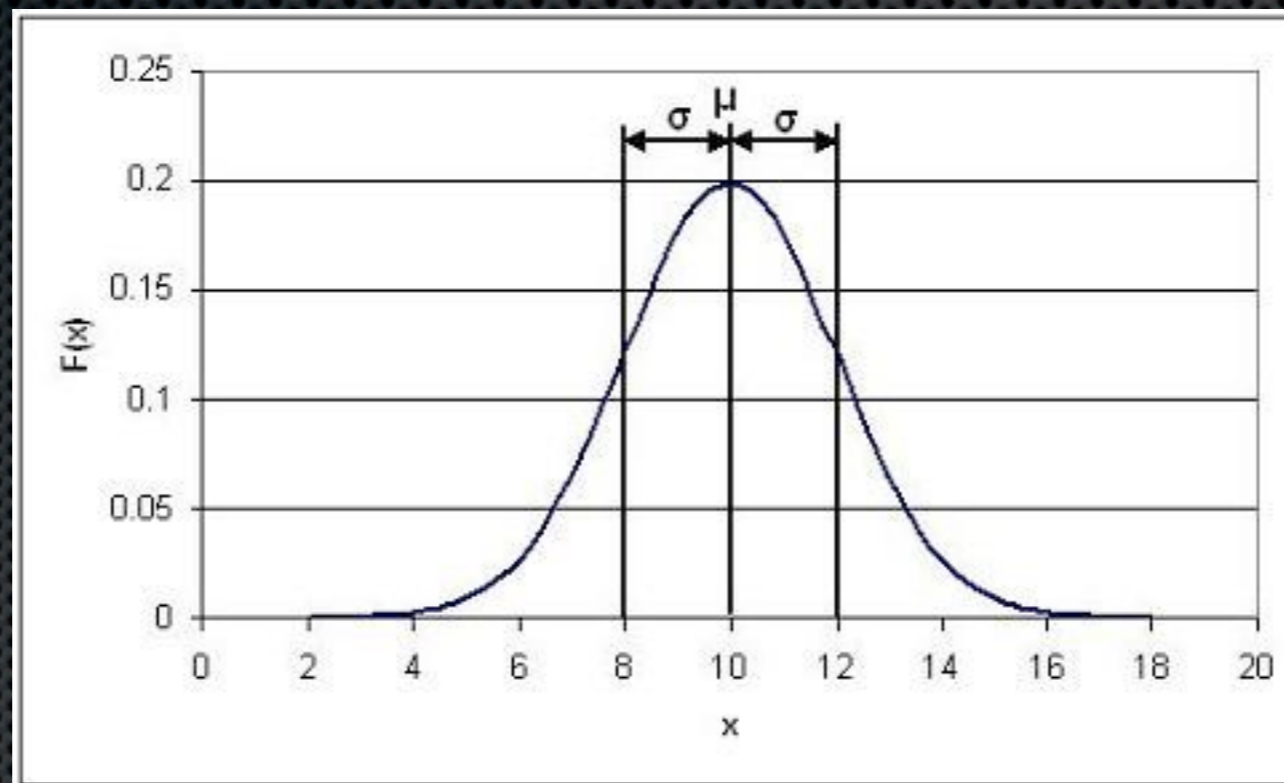

Etc.

3. Understand the rules of the game you chose to play

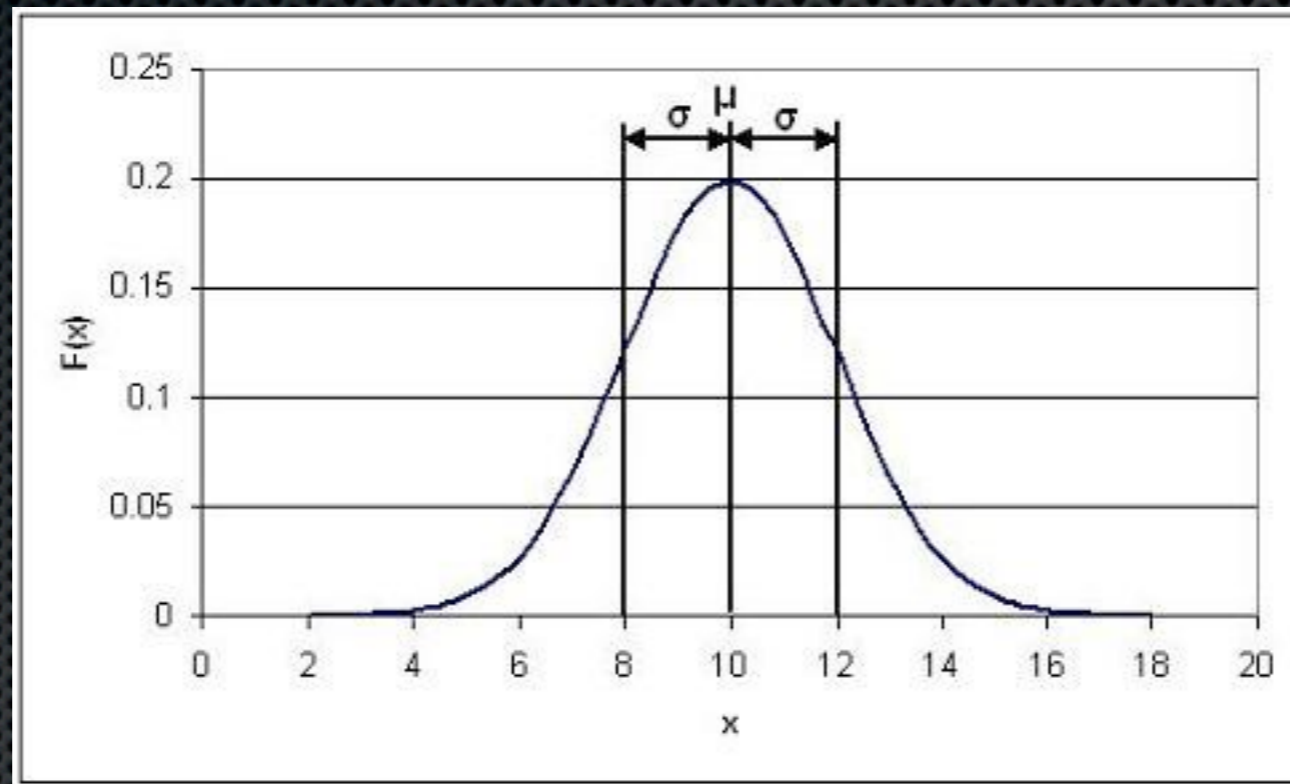

Examples: Graduation requirements
Government Regulation
Finance

4. Most people are average or below.
Simple things put you on the right

4. Most people are average or below. Simple things put you on the right

- Interpersonal skills (be nice, communicate well)
- Do good work
- Be willing to learn

4. Most people are average or below. Simple things put you on the right

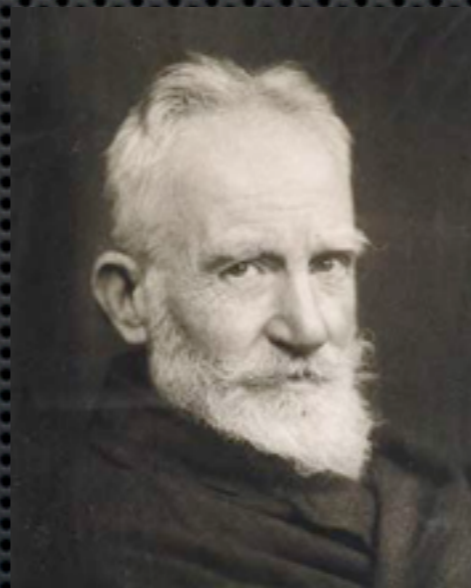

Politics are everywhere
Relationships are essential

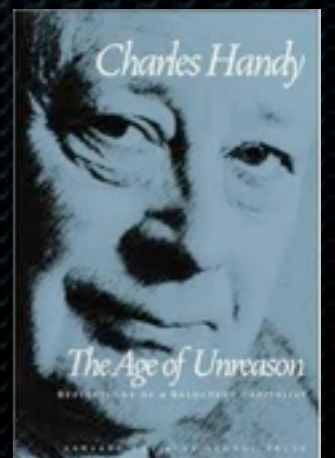

- Interpersonal skills (be nice, communicate well)
- Do good work
- Be willing to learn

5. Be Unreasonable, politely

"The reasonable man adapts himself to the conditions that surround him... The unreasonable man adapts surrounding conditions to himself... All progress depends on the unreasonable man."

George Bernard Shaw

10 SECRETS TO SUCCESS

- 1. How you think is everything. Always be positive, think success not failure, you are what you think.
- 2. Decide upon your true dreams and goals. Write them down, develop a plan to achieve them.
- 3. Take actions. Goals are nothing without action. Don't be afraid to start, Do it.
- 4. Never stop learning. Read. Read more. Interact with interesting and intelligent people.
- 5. Be persistent and work hard. Success is a marathon, not a sprint. Never give up.

10 SECRETS TO SUCCESS

- 6. Learn to analyze details. Get all the facts and input.
- 7. Focus your time and money. Don't let other people or things distract you.
- 8. Don't be afraid to innovate, be different. Following the heard insures mediocrity. Be inquisitive.
- 9. Deal and communicate with people effectively. Learn to listen. Understand others. Think before talking.
- 10. Be honest and dependable, take responsibility. Otherwise, numbers 1 to 9 don't matter. Don't do anything that would humiliate you, or your family if it were to appear in your local newspaper(Advice of Mr. Warren Buffett).
